1. A request for continued examination under 37 CFR 1.114, including the fee set forth in 37 CFR 1.17(e), was filed in this application after final rejection. Since this application is eligible for continued examination under 37 CFR 1.114, and the fee set forth in 37 CFR 1.17(e) has been timely paid, the finality of the previous Office action has been withdrawn pursuant to 37 CFR 1.114. Applicant's submission filed on 2-7-2007 has been entered.

EXAMINER'S AMENDMENT

2. An examiner's amendment to the record appears below. Should the changes and/or additions be unacceptable to applicant, an amendment may be filed as provided by 37 CFR 1.312. To ensure consideration of such an amendment, it MUST be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee.

Authorization for this examiner's amendment was given in a telephone interview with Alan E. Kopecki on April 11, 2007.

The application has been amended as follows:

In the claims:

Claims 13 and 14 have been amended as follows:

13. (Currently Amended) The process according to claim 12 wherein the volume (V0) of the cavity is such that the volume of ~~non-vulcanized~~ uncured colored rubber (V1) is less than 80% of the total volume (V0).

Art Unit: 1733

14. (Currently Amended) The process according to claim 12 wherein the cavity comprises, on at least one wall thereof, at least one recess which is left empty of non-vulcanized uncured colored rubber following step b.

Summary of above-noted April 11, 2007 Interview: Agreement was reached on changing "non-vulcanized" to --uncured-- in each of claims 13 and 14 by examiner's amendment to adopt consistent terminology throughout the claims and thereby avoid any ambiguity created by use of different terms for the same material.

Reasons for Allowance

3. The following is an examiner's statement of reasons for allowance:

The claims are allowable over the closest prior art for the reasons set forth in the comments accompanying the 1-8-2007 amendment when coupled with the clarifying amendments presented in the 2-7-2007 amendment, none of the closest prior art, whether taken singly or in combination, suggesting or rendering obvious a process as claimed.

Any comments considered necessary by applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably accompany the issue fee. Such submissions should be clearly labeled "Comments on Statement of Reasons for Allowance."
